QUALIFICATIONS:

- If you believe your qualification is equivalent or higher than the one required, you must provide the panel with the necessary evidence to show this is the case. If the panel are unable to make an informed decision from the information provided, they may decide that the application form does not meet this particular criterion.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

- The selection panel will only interview those applicants who appear, from the information provided on the submitted application form, to meet the relevant experience and ability.
- It is therefore essential that applicants describe fully in the application form the extent to which they satisfy the specified criteria (giving length of experience, examples and dates as required).
- The Panel will be interested in whom you reported to, what you did and how successful you were.
- It is not sufficient to simply list your duties and responsibilities. The selection panel will not make assumptions from the title of the applicants' posts as to the skills and experience gained.

APPLICATION FORMS

- Applicants are reminded that the application form must be fully completed as incomplete application forms will not be considered.
- CVs, letters or any other supplementary material will not be accepted (unless otherwise stated) in place of, or in addition to, completed application forms.
- Only the information presented in the application form (and supplementary information if required) will be considered by the selection panel.
- Your application will be examined by a selection panel whose job it is to assess the content of your application against pre-determined criteria, based on the requirements of the position.
- It is in your own interest that you provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/experience, including relevant dates.
- Any inaccuracy in completing your form may result in rejection.

WHEN COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION FORM

- Do not use acronyms, complex technical detail etc.
- Write down clearly your personal involvement in any experience you quote. It is how you actually carried out the piece of work that the selection panel will be interested in.
- Identify relevant examples. This is very important, as you may need to be prepared to talk about these examples in detail if you are invited to interview. It is your unique role the panel is interested in, not that of your team.

Disability

The Disability Discrimination Act 1995 makes it unlawful for an employer to treat a disabled person less favourably than someone else because of their disability, unless there is a good reason.

Under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 a person is considered to have a disability if he/she has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his/her ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

Please note that it is the effect of the impairment, without treatment, which determines if an individual meets this definition of disability.

GUARANTEED INTERVIEW SCHEME

We are committed to the employment and career development of disabled people. We guarantee an interview to anyone with a disability whose application meets the essential criteria for the post.

What do we mean by disability?

To be eligible for the scheme you must meet the definition of disabled under Disability Discrimination Act 1995. You must have a long-term disability or health condition, which put you at a disadvantage in either obtaining or keeping jobs. The disability could be physical, sensory or mental and must have lasted or be expected to last at least 12 months.

Do I have to use the scheme?

Not at all. If you are a disabled candidate and wish to tick the box to secure the benefits of the guaranteed interview scheme, then you are very welcome. Equally if you would prefer not to then this is also fine and you will still be entitled to receive reasonable adjustments throughout the process, if your application is proceeded with. Disclosure of a disability is never mandatory, but we would encourage you to do so in order for us to be able to make reasonable adjustments for you and to give you the best opportunity to demonstrate your skills and abilities.

How do I apply?

Complete the declaration below and let us know if you would like your application to be considered under the guaranteed interview scheme.

To ensure we do not create any barriers in our selection process, please let us know if you would like us to provide any particular assistance for your interview below:
