Groups supported under the Victims and Survivors Core-funding Grant Scheme fall under three broad categories.

These are:

VOLUNTEER GROUPS:

- Engaged in basic support, befriending, outreach, remembering (but not memorials) and social activities.
- Working in areas where there are particular infrastructure difficulties.

SELF-HELP ORGANISATIONS/GROUPS:

- Engaged in befriending, outreach, advice giving, remembering (but not memorials), social activities, youth work and family support.
- Building relationships and networks and (in particular) trust and confidence within and between members of their organisation/group and the wider community.
- Developing strategic plans which explore sustainability or exit strategies.

PARALLEL SERVICE PROVIDERS (PSP):

- Show both partnerships and synergies with the statutory sector.
- Offer support, partnership or training for self-help organisations/groups.
- Show a strategy for professional staff development.
- Run projects not likely to be covered by the statutory sector, which provide direct services for victims/survivors.
